POWERS DIFFER AS TO CHINA'S PUNISHMENT.

Death of Princes Demanded By Some But This Country Makes a Protest.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—It developed today that the chief point in the exchanges concerning China which have been on during the last few days among the powers relates to the wisdom of delivering an ultimatum. In the text of the demand to be handed to the Chinese envoys, involving the possibility of a resulting declaration of war against China in case the demands of the ultimatum are not complied with. It appears that some of the powers desired the express use of the word "ultimatum" in the demand relative to the decapitation or other extreme punishment of eleven of the princes and other high officials responsible for the outrages, and this view of using the most expressive terms of diplomacy seems to have found favor with the Ministers at Peking.

When it became known at the several capitals considerable dissent became manifest. About a week ago Japan took the initiative in an appeal for moderation, and this received the favorable consideration of the United States, France, Russia and Great Britain, although a positive statement as to Great Britain cannot be made. About the same time Secretary Hay took steps to express the view of this Government that it was inadvisable to proceed to the extent of an ultimatum against China, but that the demands should not be beyond what China reasonably might have the power to comply with.

The unanimity of sentiment among the powers gives ground for the belief that the demands of the Ministers will be modified by the omission of an ultimatum, although it is not yet clear what the final attitude of the remaining powers—Germany, Austria and Italy—will be. The negotiations in this particular were carried on in London through Ambassador Gode, and it is regarded as significant that one of the parties to the Anglo-German alliance.

MURDER TRIAL. CORNER IS OFF.

Father of Jessie Morrison Constantly at Her Side.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 28.—A special to the Star from Eldorado, Kan., says: At noon today the defense in the Jessie Morrison murder case had one challenge remaining, and when that is used and the vacancy filled there will be a complete jury and the hearing of the evidence will begin.

Jessie Morrison's comfort and support during the trial is her old father, Farmer Probate Judge Morrison. He has been by her side in the court room constantly and has accompanied her to and from the jail.

Olin Castle, widower of the murdered woman, has arranged a hunting party for Thanksgiving Day and invited several of the newspaper men attending the trial to accompany him.

"I wish this trial would end," he said to the reporters, "I'm getting awfully tired of it."

JURY SECURED. ELDORADO, Kan., Nov. 28.—A jury to try Jessie Morrison, charged with killing Mrs. G. Olin Castle, her rival, was secured this afternoon after more than a week's examination of veniremen. All the jury are farmers and married men. None of them are under 30 years of age.

The court adjourned until Friday morning, when the taking of evidence will begin.

ROBERTS NEEDS TROOPS

War in South Africa a Long Way From Being Ended.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—While the reports of the condition of Cape Colony are regarded as somewhat unnecessarily alarmist, there is little disposition to take a too rosy view of the general situation. The constant dispatch to South Africa of reinforcing drafts and the daily fights at points wide apart show the war is not over, and while the statement that Lord Roberts has demanded 20,000 fresh troops is incorrect, it is a fact that he has asked for 8,000 men to replace the battalions where wastage incapacitates them for duty at the front. These reinforcements will be dispatched, but they will seriously attenuate the garrisons of the United Kingdom, inasmuch as Lord Roberts insists that the troops shall be picked men and have seasoned officers.

KILL FOR CASH.

Masked Men Wreck a Bank and Kill an Officer.

They Blow Up the Safe and Escape With Its Contents.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. BOSTON, Nov. 28.—Four masked men wrecked the Farmers' Bank of Boston early today. It is stated that they secured all the funds of the bank, between $3,000 and $4,000. When the robbers discharged their first blasts of dynamite in an effort to open the vault the explosion aroused John Alberts, four blocks away. Alberts hurried to the bank. One of the robbers was on guard on the street. He shot Alberts, who was bound hand and foot and dragged into the bank, where he witnessed the preparations for the second blast. When the fuse was lighted the robbers stepped outside and Albert lay in the corner when it went off. He was not seriously injured, however.

The second blast unhinged the vault doors and the robbers made off with all the cash. Securing a hearse they pulled out in the direction of Deane. There they were met by Patrolman Sanford, who attempted to arrest them. One of the robbers fired and Sanford fell, mortally wounded through the body.

Outside the town the men boarded a passenger train on the Chicago and Alton. All traces of them were lost.

The engine of the passenger train claims that he saw a man jump from the first car at Milner while the train was moving at a high speed, but a search of the locality failed to show any traces of the man.

The bank building was almost a complete wreck, and the vault was entirely ruined.

GERMANY IN LINE.

Kaiser Assents to the Joint Note of Peking Ministers.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—It is said on high authority that Germany has assented, without a modification, to the joint note prepared by the Ministers of the powers at Peking, and that France has also concurred.

The officials of the Foreign Office deny the statement from Peking that France has seized territory at Tien Tsin for the purpose of tripling the size of her concession.

A dispatch from Peking to the Havas Agency says the Ministers of the following powers declare they are authorized to sign the joint agreement in which Germany, China, Germany, the United States, Great Britain, Austria-Hungary, Belgium and Italy.

WINANS' CITIZENSHIP.

Suit That Affects Estate of the Dead Millionaire.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Lord Chief Justice's court is occupied at present with determining whether the late William Winans, formerly of Baltimore, Md., was a domiciled resident of Great Britain when he died in 1897. This question is being tested on account of a legacy of £25,000 bequeathed to his son-in-law, Ellen Dolan, on which the crown claims a legacy duty. As the Attorney-General suddenly remarked, the decision of course will affect the whole of Mr. Winans' millions, and counsel for the crown proceeded to recount the dates and shooting grounds leased by Mr. Winans, on which he lavished enormous sums of money, including £70,000 on the shooting lease from Lord Lovat, "constituting," contended the Attorney-General, "ample proof of his settlement in this country."

Walter Winans testified that his father always regarded Baltimore as his home.

The case is proceeding.

The court finally decided in favor of the crown and against Winans.

HIGH-HANDED GERMANS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—It is reported here from Peking that the Germans have boarded a Chinese vessel and demanded treasure consigned to an English company at Tien Tsin. As the boxes of treasure had been landed the Germans could not get them. They then hoisted the German flag on the vessel and confiscated her cargo.

A formal statement from the Supreme Court of Minnesota was received today by Mrs. Davis, as follows:

Davis, hereby profess our sorrow at his untimely demise and extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to you and the members of the family in your sad bereavement. We assure you of our profound regret for the irreparable loss which you have sustained in the death of your late lamented husband."

It is probable the funeral will be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, although definite arrangements have not yet been made.

The woman was taken to the hospital, but cannot live.

She was a daughter of John Coums, a prominent colored politician, and brought suit for divorce this week on the charge of abandonment.

Poisoning is suspected. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

U. C. IS NOT SURE.

Berkeley's Team is Not in the Best Condition.

However, Coach Kelley and Captain Pringle are Confident.

At the eleventh hour California has lost one of the eleven men picked to represent the State institution in the big game tomorrow. Dibblee and Premo, the men California relied upon to fill left end in case Hudson's arm did not allow him to play, were both injured in last night's practice game.

Although Trainer Loan says he will have Hudson in condition, it is greatly feared by the blue and gold supporters that Williams, the freshman end, will have to be put in at the last minute. Left end is California's weakest place on the line, and though Williams is a hard and steady player he does not approach varsity form.

The practice game yesterday afternoon was short and hard.

Coach Kelley when seen this morning made the following statement:

"The training this year has been directed to perfecting the offense. The individual men from last year's team have already received coaching in defensive work and are more able to keep than up than to gain in offensive play, which demands that the eleven should be drilled in playing together. The need of developing a new back field has forced us to work all the harder in perfecting our offense."

"We have had to make many changes that the best team development has been hindered. Another thing, we have had to play our older varsity men too much."

"No man after learning his game needs to play all the time. Smith has been worked too hard, in order to train the new men to a unity of play, and Womble has been needed to give the signals."

"To sum up the situation, I can say that we feel we have done the best with the material at our disposal, and I am satisfied with the team. It will give a good account of itself."

Captain Pringle has the utmost confidence in his team, and when seen by a TRIBUNE representative made the following statement:

"The team as now picked represents the best we have. Our line is strong enough to hold Stanford's rushes if it plays its hardest. Our center trio, if firm and effective and backed by Duden and Smith, will be able to withstand the backs of our opponents. A great deal depends on the defensive work of our backs. Stanford's formation calls for a heavy defense. Our line men can only be expected to burst through and break up the interference behind the line. The ends and backs should get the runner. It was the failure to do this that lost the freshman game. In our punting game we hope to excel Stanford. Our ends are faster under kicks and our backs run them in better. The men will play ball from start to finish. We will not be stampeded, and it is needless to say that no man on the eleven is a quitter."

BRUTAL ROBBERS ATTACK WOMAN AT FRUITVALE.

Mrs. W. B. Curtis is Roughly Handled By Highwaymen--Women Terrified.

Shortly after midnight this morning Mrs. W. B. Curtis, residing at Twenty-seventh avenue, Fruitvale, was held up and brutally assaulted by two footpads, and relieved of several dollars.

Mrs. Curtis had been attending a social function in this city last night, and left Oakland about midnight by the Hayward electric car.

At Twenty-seventh avenue she alighted and started to walk briskly for her home, just back of the Finch residence.

She had not taken many steps, however, when suddenly she felt a strong arm thrown around her neck and a big, rough hand was pressed hard against her mouth to stifle any possible outcry.

Almost simultaneously another man grabbed her little satchel suspended at her side, and this being secured the highwaymen took to their heels.

Mrs. Curtis states that the robber who first assailed her was a tall man, and his accomplice was short in stature.

Through the rough clapping against her face of the hand of the tall highwayman, she sustained a painful scratch on her nose about an inch long.

She fears the scratch was made by the robber's finger-nail, and hence is considerably exercised over the possibility of blood poisoning.

The hold-up was reported to the police this morning and Detective Shorey was detailed to investigate the case, but the detective says that no clue has been found that will lead to the capture or identification of the footpads.

Another woman was held up on Fruitvale avenue last night.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. THE CZAR'S ILLNESS.
The news of the promising chances for the recovery of the Czar will be received with gratification by the civilized world because of his well-known tendencies to peace and from the fact that he has exercised a restraining influence upon the powers in the settlement of the present Chinese problem. Clothed with absolute authority and having under his control the direction of all the forces of one of the greatest empires on earth, he could not be other than a tremendous factor in the world's affairs. During his reign he has been influenced and guided by his wife, and to her counsel is undoubtedly to be credited his move to install an international court of arbitration which has had the effect of creating a feeling of comity among the powers which previously regarded each other with distrust and suspicion. The proposition coming from such a quarter took the world by surprise, as Russian diplomacy had never before been directed toward peace, but had always been tinged with the traditional policy of Peter the Great, who laid down the dictum that the Muscovite should gain his ascendancy by the sword.

While the plans advocated by the Czar have brought about nothing of a definite character the international peace conference at The Hague that convened in response to his appeal to the powers has had a moral effect in that it has made the nations declare themselves in favor of being guided by the dictates of justice rather than by the promptings of force. With the present Czar upon the throne at St. Petersburg the world has at least felt that an agency was being exercised from that source in favor of peace rather than bloodshed, whereas his successor would be an unknown quantity in this regard. The further fact that the very young man is also a menacing circumstance, for he would either be headstrong and inclined to do things upon his own account, or else a mere puppet in the hands of designing statesmen. With the assurances of a pacific policy that are contained in the continuance of the present regime placed in the balance against the uncertainties of a successor the world indeed has occasion to rejoice over the news that the Czar is slowly but surely traveling upon the road to health.

SHIPPING SUBSIDIES.
Although opposition is developing in various parts of the country to the Frye-Paine shipping subsidy bill that will be introduced early in the session of Congress the general demand appears to be overwhelmingly in favor of it and there is little doubt that the affirmative action recommended by the administration will be secured. The arguments that are being advanced to the effect that the subsidies are framed in the interests of certain shipbuilders are in a sense illogical, for while true enough from the standpoint that those now operating shipyards will get direct benefits, it is surely apparent that the real object sought will also be reached, that is to say, that capital now withheld from the industry will engage in it so as to participate in the liberal profits offered.

The proposed subsidy system is nothing new in any event. In fact, it is as old as the hills, for it is by that method that the trading nations of the world have built up their colonial possessions. Unless such inducements are in sight as will warrant the owners of vessels to run their ships to certain points it stands to reason they will be withheld therefrom, with the result that no matter how much latent business may be awaiting development it will never be tapped, owing to the lack of transportation. With sufficient subsidies paid, however, to enable owners of craft to ply to the points in question at a reasonable profit it is plain that all parties become benefited, for the growth and value of the colonial business that is created means many times more to the possessory nation than the comparatively small sums paid annually as subsidies. We have had a practical illustration of this sort of thing right here of late, for the French government has subsidized one of the local steamship companies to make semi-monthly trips to Tahiti in the South Seas, thereby opening up that rich group of islands to general travel and bringing about what will undoubtedly be an extensive commerce in the immediate future.

That heroic measures must be taken with our shipping industry cannot be denied. Thirty years ago there were 20,000 American vessels with a tonnage of 1,210,000. This number has declined 6,000, although the tonnage has risen slightly. Last year four times as heavy a tonnage of foreign as of American vessels entered United States ports. It is true that a boom is in progress in ship building, though that fact should not be used as an argument against the subsidies but rather as one in favor of them, in that it shows how terrific is the demand upon our present resources in that line. Four steamers of 25,500 tons are on the stocks for the Hawaiian trade and ten other steamers with a displacement of 10,000 tons are being built for foreign commerce, while forty-five rusting traders with a tonnage almost as large have been contracted for. As great activity is shown in the yards of the Great Lakes, and altogether a shipping movement more earnest than anything we have experienced since the days of the Civil War is in evidence on both sides of the continent. Protected and encouraged as it would be by the proposed system of subsidies, the industry would undoubtedly quickly take the position in our list of resources to which it is entitled, and it is after all no empty dream to say that here on the Pacific, where we control 60 miles of coast line within easy reach of China, Japan and Russia, our trade with Eastern Asia ought to amount, in a few years, to $1,000,000,000 annually.

NOT TRUE SPORTSMEN.
The English sportsmen have discovered to their discomfort that the charges of fraudulent practices urged against American jockeys were made without any solid foundation and had their rise in all probability through the rumor put in circulation by the envious British riders who were completely outclassed by their more successful Yankee rivals. At the same time, however, none of the old country turf put-rons have come to the front in any way make apology for their hasty action in discrediting those against whom they entertained charges based only upon suspicion. While it is natural to account for the wave of indignation that the rumors occasioned it would be to the credit of the English sportsmen were he to publicly avow his mistaken judgment, which was rendered and put into effect before the accused had an opportunity of showing the fallacy of the charges.

The American jockey is in many ways superior to the British rider. He is usually a follower of the turf from early childhood and has a thorough and intimate knowledge of the horse. He is not only an employee but is enthusiastic in the science of horse racing, and is a general and not an automaton. For those reasons he is the king of riders and he has not his equal in those of any other nationality. If he is given anything to ride that possesses speed and other racing qualities he will make the most of it. That is why he has surprised the English public with achievements which rivals are only too prone to ascribe to unfair methods. It is easy to assert that "dope" and other such agencies are employed by the clever Yankee, and the public is willing to believe that the undertone of the race track is favorable to trickery and unfair practices, but nothing is farther from the truth. A dishonest race is almost certain of exposure, and the penalties are too great to be worth the while of any jockey or horse owner to accept the hazards. It means expulsion and a life-long debarment from track and pegasus, and the profits do not warrant the risk. The fair, right and honorable thing for the British racing sports to do is to admit that they were wrong and hasty in judgment and apologize as publicly and as fully as they made the charges.

A feature of the army reorganization bill that will be a strong card in its favor is that the recruiting stations are swamped with applications for enlistment. If the country had to be scoured for men or anything in the nature of forcible means were required to secure them it is a sure thing that the whole proposition would be knocked on the head, but with men willing and even eager to get in the ranks, the measure should be popular from the standpoint of furnishing employment to needy citizens.

A well-known pugilist across the bay has abandoned the prize ring and gone into the street paving business. His enemies will doubtless take advantage of the incident to say that long and varied experience in the art of laying down suggested to him his new vocation.

An Indiana legislator wants lobbyists put in green uniforms with big brass buttons so that everyone can tell who they are. His name probably does not appear on Colonel Mazuma's visiting list and he is anxious to know just where to go when he wants to "talk turkey."

The Lord Mayor's show in London this year is said to have been one of the most elaborate on record. As all the pictures just to hand of the new municipal executive show that he wears glasses it can be understood why he should desire the pageant to be spectacular.

Those Flirting Brakemen.
A St. Joseph High School girl who went to Kansas City one day last week is very much disgusted with the manner in which the brakemen flirt with the girls on the train. "Why," she said to a gentleman friend on her return, "that impudent brakeman must have thought I was a year old. When we were nearly at Port Leavenworth the train slowed up, and what do you think the fellow did?" "I'm sure I don't know," returned her friend. "Well, he opened the car door and looked straight at me and yelled 'Peeka-a-bo!' Then he dodged back on the platform. Wasn't that insulting?" The young man to whom she was talking knew very well that the brakeman had called "Kike-a-poo," but he didn't have courage to tell her so.—St. Joseph (Mo.) News.

WANT SOIL FROM POSTOFFICE LOT.
The site for the new postoffice at the southeast corner of Seventeenth and Broadway is now attracting considerable attention on the part of contractors and people who have lots to fill or vegetable garden which they wish to enrich by disposition upon them of the rich loam which forms the surface of the lot in question.

Local contractors have asked Postmaster Friend for permission to take some of the soil away from no expense to the Government. Mr. Friend, however, has informed all such applicants that he has no authority to grant such a request. Finally, in answer to the wishes of the applicants he has forwarded their requests to the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury at Washington. Some of the men wanted only a ton of earth, others sought several loads and one individual offered to grade the entire lot to the level of the sidewalk and to haul the soil away.

The word came back from Washington that all requests had been denied, for the reason that the granting might not insure to the advantage of the Government when the time should arrive for letting the contract for excavating for the cellar and the foundation of the structure.

The offer in lower the surface of the lot to the level of the sidewalk is considered a liberal offer, because, in some places, the irregular surface of the property is perhaps six feet above the Broadway walk.

OAKLAND WILL GIVE THANKS.

Programs Arranged for
This Evening and Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the feast of Thanksgiving will be celebrated, and, as usual, it will be observed both as a religious and social holiday. Union services will take place in various churches throughout the city. Elaborate dinners and family reunions will be held in hundreds of homes, while opera, vaudeville and melodrama in the theaters will bring the day to a close.

The initial part of the celebration will take place tonight, a number of varied events being provided to satisfy the tastes of a cosmopolitan population. The return of prosperity to the country and the promise of its continuation during the next four years of Republican administration have put the people in the proper mood to thoroughly appreciate this feast of thanksgiving and rejoicing. Money has been plentiful, the yield of the season has yielded up its life without reluctance and there is no fear that anybody will go hungry.

COMPANY A'S BALL.

The annual ball of Company A, Fifth Regiment, National Guard of California, will be given in the National Guard Armory this evening. This entertainment partakes of more than the usual number of features of interest. It will be, as in the past, conducted on the most refined lines of propriety, only guests with cards being admitted. The music will be rendered by the orchestra band of the Fifth Regiment, and the dance music will comprise the latest pieces from the pens of the composers of ball music. The decorations this year are more elaborate than any which have been seen in this city under similar circumstances. The trustees and staff of the armory have disappeared in the maze of decorative work which has been provided, and amid this will glister several hundred incandescent lights, creating a novel and beautiful effect. The officers and members of the company who have charge of the ball are as follows: Lieutenant Ellis, Captain Hunt, Sergeant Bell, Corporal Poulter, Corporal De Vay, Corporal York, Sergeant Cren and Privates Hoas, Peterson, Lamb, Smith, Gray and I. M. Hermann.

Y. M. C.

Oakland Council No. 6, Y. M. C. I. will give its annual ball this evening in the Lyman Hall. A number of tickets have been sold and every arrangement has been made to afford all patrons an evening of rare entertainment.

SET ASIDE.

The ball which was announced for this evening under the auspices of Oakland Parlor, N. S. G. W., has been indefinitely postponed.

SACRED HEART PARISH.

For some days past an energetic committee has been at work preparing for the literary and musical entertainment which is to be given in St. Lawrence Hall, corner of Twelfth and Grove streets. As a consequence an excellent program has been prepared for the evening's diversion.

ADVENT MUSICAL SERVICE.

A service of unusual musical interest is to be held this evening in the Church of the Advent, East Oakland, at 8 p. m. It is a special Thanksgiving evening musical service. The large vested choir under the direction of Wallace A. Sablin has been rehearsing most faithfully for the event. Several leading singers both from San Francisco and Oakland will take part. Mr. Sablin will preside at the organ. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Champet, rector of Trinity Church, San Francisco. This service will be a rare musical treat to all lovers of sacred music. The church has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The following is the program:

Processional—Hymn 196, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come."
Opening Anthem—"I Will Give Thanks."
Opening Sentences—"Come, Ye Thankful People, Come."
Special Psalm—Psalm 137, "By the Waters of Babylon."
First Lesson—Isaiah 66, "The Lord is the Father of the Poor."
Second Lesson—1 Thess. 5, v. 12 to v. 24.

Offertory—"Hallelujah."
Recessional Hymn 222, "On Our Way Rejoice."
AT HANAUERST.

In the First Presbyterian Church of Timbush there will be a praise service this evening for which an elaborate program of music has been arranged.

UNION SERVICES.

In the First Presbyterian Church, Upper Fruitvale, special services will be conducted in the morning by Staff Captain Crawford of the Salvation Army at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. E. Anderson of San Leandro and at 3 p. m. by Miss Funk, evangelist.

The Brooklyn Presbyterian, the Tenth Avenue Baptist, the Eighth Avenue M. I. and the M. I. M. Congregational Churches are to unite in a Thanksgiving service tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. W. Hill, pastor of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, will preach the sermon. The service will be held in the M. I. M. Congregational Church.

LETTER CARRIERS.

The letter carriers of this city and a nine of boys in gray in the same business will play a baseball game tomorrow afternoon at Golden Gate grounds in this city. The losing team is to pay for a dinner for the victors. A large number of tickets has been sold and a most pleasant time is anticipated. Habit J. P. of this city is the manager of the home team and George Voss looks after the San Francisco team. Horace L. Skinner is captain of the Oakland team and Charles de la Fontaine of the San Francisco nine.

The line-up of the players will be as follows:
Skinner Pitcher Markley
Hank Catcher Abrams

Pinegar Second base Deban
Kelton Third base De la Fontaine

THIRTIEN'S BALL.

There will be a grand entertainment and dance this evening in Alcatraz Hall, Seavault and Delta streets, under the auspices of the Order of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The ball will be all the more worthy of appreciation because the proceeds are to be applied to the relief of brother workmen in Galveston.

The King's Daughters are at home today receiving donations for the support of the institution under their charge at the corner of Eleventh and Oak streets. They have not been waiting idly for contributions. On the contrary they have been extremely active receiving the outpourings of generous homes and showing visitors through the place which they are maintaining for the relief of those to whom medical and surgical science can afford no relief and who are known as incurables.

The donations exceed in liberality any ever received at the home and have the effect of making attendants and patients alike happy.

A number of rooms in the home have been furnished by residents of this city, and these were displayed to visitors greatly to their pleasure.
Among these is an apartment styled the "Adie R. Scott Room." This was furnished by the 63-year-old daughter of Mrs. L. W. Scott, who said to her mother one month ago that if she had all the money she wanted on Thanksgiving day she would like to supply a room in the King's Daughters' home.
Other rooms have been furnished by the Courtesy Circle, First Baptist Church; St. Hildegard Circle, First M. I. Church; Congregational Church; Brooklyn Presbyterian Church; East Oakland Baptist Church and Church of the Advent.

Major C. C. Clay has presented a fine organ to the home. Eight rooms have been furnished for the old men by "Two Friends," who do not wish their names made public.

JUSTICE EDGAR MADE MISTAKES.

Justice Greene held this morning that Justice Edgar, who held Bert Waite to answer for "forgery or counterfeiting," made errors during the preliminary hearing which were prejudicial to the defendant. The matter came up on motion of Attorney Warren B. Jones to set aside the information. The judge said there were that the commitment charged two crimes and that evidence was admitted at the hearing which had no bearing on the case but which worked an injury to the defendant. The judge withheld his order granting the motion until a new complaint can be filed.

Waite is the young express agent of Havana, Ohio, who submitted the funds and a book of blank orders and then fled to this coast. It is claimed that he passed one of the orders on the Berkeley Bank.

LOOKING FOR LOST MR. JONES

He Was Engaged to Marry an Alden
Girl.

Joseph T. Jones, who has mysteriously disappeared from sight, was engaged to wed an estimable young lady of this city in the near future.
Jones is the man concerning whom mysterious inquiry has been made during the past several days at the San Francisco Morgue. He was a private in Uncle Sam's army and saw service in the Philippines. He returned from there about six months ago and was stationed at the Presidio. He became acquainted with the family of Frederick L. Mitchell, a San Francisco commission merchant residing on Maple street, Temescal, and a warm friendship soon sprang up between the soldier and one of Mr. Mitchell's daughters. It was lately whispered that the couple were engaged.

About two weeks ago Private Jones was given his honorable discharge. A week later he called on the Mitchells and had dinner with the family. Since then, although he promised to call again the next day, he has not been seen or heard from. Inquiries in the Morgue in the cities about the boy have proved futile, and the Mitchell family fear some harm has come to him.

All preparations for the expected wedding have been stopped.

FOOD IN NEW YORK.

An Experienced Physician's Work.
Dr. Hivande MacGrath, in experimenting on the result of food on his own body, says: "After eating four heaping teaspoons of Grape-Nuts with a little cream, I had occasion to walk about fourteen miles and was surprised at my feeling of strength and buoyancy. On other occasions, when I have taken careful note of my feelings and sensations, I have discovered that intellectual tasks are comparatively easy when using Grape-Nuts at each meal."

"Of course I understand that the theory regarding Grape-Nuts is practically perfect. That is, the food contains elements that are well known, and furnished in a concentrated and quite delicious form. It is reasonable to expect results, but the physical demonstration of these results is more satisfactory, always, than the mere statement of theory."

"Grape-Nuts combined with fruit and seasonable vegetables, I prescribe to all young women and delicate men, and have not had a case yet that has not furnished gratifying results. A nervous, irritable man of 72 became fat and amiable using Grape-Nuts food as a regular (but not exclusive) diet."

"I have found slender, anemic girls improved rapidly in health, spirits, weight, and looks, on Grape-Nuts food. It would be a blessing to thousands of such girls if this food was used more largely in boarding schools and seminaries, not to be administered as medicine, but as a pure, healthful, and highly nourishing food." Dr. MacGrath lives at 26 5th Ave., New York.

KENTUCKY NOT MENACING PORTE

Battleship's Visit to Smyrna One of Peace.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—All Ferret Boy, the Turkish Minister here, called on Secretary Hay today relative to the visit of the big battleship Kentucky to Turkish waters. The Kentucky sailed from San Pedro Saturday and arrived at the important Turkish port of Smyrna this morning, only a few hours after the Minister's visit. After his talk with Secretary Hay, the Minister declared the Kentucky's visit conveyed no menace and had no bearing upon the diplomatic relations between the Turkish government and the United States. He asserted with great positiveness that the Sultan cherished the kindest feelings toward McKinley and the relations were most amicable.

Inquiry at the State and Navy Departments today as to the Kentucky's mission elicited the simple statement that the visit of the battleship to Smyrna had no hostile significance. Meanwhile it is understood the negotiations between Mr. Gieseler, our Charge at Constantinople, and the Porte, as to the settlement of the missionary claims and the question as to Dr. Norton's exequatur as Consul at Beirut, are progressing with indications that a compromise will be arranged.

TURKS TALK FIGHT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Cable advice says the Vienna Tagblatt publishes a dispatch from Constantinople to the effect that the Turkish Government and the United States have held a conference to determine whether or not the sending of the United States battleship Kentucky to Smyrna should be regarded as an act of hostility. According to the Tagblatt's dispatch, some Minister urged the severance of diplomatic relations with the United States and even went so far as to threaten war unless the Kentucky should be withdrawn from Turkish waters. The Minister expressed the belief that the European powers would not permit the United States to attack Turkey and that that country, therefore, should be safe in taking a defiant attitude.

INDIANS WILL FIGHT.

Cowboys Say Red Men Will Not Submit to Arrest.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 28.—A special to the Times from Meeker, Colo., says: Game Warden Johnson and party camped last night in the White River, about thirty miles below Meeker. Cowboys who came in today report the Indians hunting along White River, between Runkley and White River City. They say the redmen will fight and under no circumstances will they be taken into custody.

Citizens at Meeker do not anticipate any trouble should the Indians be responsible for the route indicated that all the Indians have been on the reservation for more than ten days. The plans of Game Warden Johnson will keep his party out for about eight days. Should they encounter Indians, scouts will be sent to Meeker at once to notify the authorities at Denver and secure the assistance of the militia.

Death of Miss Chisholm.

Amanda Chisholm, the 16-year-old daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth Chisholm, died yesterday at their home on Twelfth street. Deceased was a native of Nova Scotia.

THE ARMY OF HEALTH. The Army in the Philippines Insignificant Compared With This One.

If all the people in the United States, Canada and Great Britain who make daily use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets could be assembled together it would make an army that would outnumber our army of one hundred thousand by at least five to one.

Men and women, who are broken down in health, are only a part of the thousands who use this popular preparation, the greater number are people who are in fair health but who know that the way to keep well is to keep the digestion perfect and use Stuart's Tablets as regularly as meal time comes to insure good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

Prevention is always better than cure and disease can find no foothold if the digestion is kept in good working order by the daily use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
Mr. Thomas Seale, Mayfield, Calif., says: "Have used and recommended Stuart's Tablets because there is nothing like them to keep the stomach right."

Miss Lella Dively, 4627 Plummer St., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I wish everyone to know how grateful I am for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I suffered for a long time and did not know what ailed me. I lost flesh right along until one day I noticed an advertisement of these tablets and immediately bought a 50 cent box at the drug store. I am only on the second box and am gaining in flesh and color. I have at last found something that has reached my ailment."

From Mrs. Del. Eldred, San Francisco, who writes: "I was taken dizzy very suddenly during the hot weather of the past summer. After ten days of constant dizziness I went to our local physician, who said my liver was torpid and I had over heated my blood; he doctoring me for two weeks without much improvement. I finally thought of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I had used long before for various bad feelings) and the first three tablets helped me."

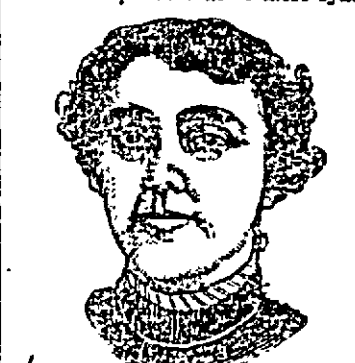

They are easily the best all around family medicine I ever used."

The army of people who take Stuart's Tablets are mostly people in fairly good health, and who keep well by taking them regularly after meals. They contain no opiate, cocaine, or any cathartic or injurious drugs, simply the natural peptones and digestives which every weak stomach lacks. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE THIS?

Pen Picture for Women.

"I am so nervous, there is not a well flesh in my whole body. I am so weak at my stomach and have indigestion, and palpitation of the heart, and I am losing flesh. This headache and backache nearly kills me, and yesterday I nearly had hysterics; there is a weight in the lower part of my bowels, bearing down all the time, and pains in my groins and thighs; I cannot sleep, walk, or sit, and I believe I am diseased all over; no one ever suffers as I do."
This is a description of thousands of cases which come to Mrs. Pinkham's attention daily. An inflamed and ulcerated condition of the neck of the womb can produce all of these symptoms.

forms, and no woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is absolutely no need of it. The subject of our portrait in this sketch, Mrs. Williams of Englishtown, N.J., has been entirely cured of all illness by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the guiding advice of Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass.
No other medicine has such a record for absolute cures, and no other medicine is just as good. Women who want a cure should insist upon getting Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when they ask for it at a store. Anyway, write a letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her all your troubles. Her advice is free.

Celebrated Palmist CHEIROMA

VISITS OUR CITY
DIRECT FROM THE EAST.

Gifted Spirituelle Prophet

The conscientious student of science is seldom rewarded for his investment of time and energy. Exhaustive investigation and painstaking application do not always bring the crown of fame. A notable exception is that of Cheiroma and her development of the science of palmistry. The benefits of Cheiroma's science have been recognized and applied by thousands as a practical and indispensable addition to the working formation of mankind.

Palmistry is a science. The lines on the hand are as an open book to Cheiroma and they tell the truth, your fate, your fortune. The past and future events of your life are there revealed.

What do you desire to know? The skilled palmist can tell. Cheiroma's readings are helpful. They tell of your life, its weaknesses, its points of strength, your money affairs, travel, home, children, sickness, marriage, legacies, your success, spiritual faculties, your pathway in life, however intricate. The spirituelle and remarkably gifted Cheiroma will please you and instruct you at the same time.

PATHETIC SCENES AT MORGUE.

Seventeen are Dead and Over One Hundred Were Injured.

Statement That Seats on the Building Were Sold is Again Denied.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—The terrible accident of yesterday, resulting in the death of 17 persons and in the injury of four times as many more, has cast a gloom over the city. About the morgue today there have been crowds of anxious inquirers, relatives and friends of those who are known to have been victims of the accident. The dead have all been identified.

The Coroner's Jury will be taken to view the remains before night and will also visit the scene of the tragedy. Until all the dead have been viewed by the jury none of the remains will be permitted to be taken away from the morgue.

All of the hospitals are crowded with the maimed and injured and a large staff of physicians and nurses is at work.

Three more deaths occurred this morning, making sixteen. Of those badly injured several will die.

THE TRAGEDY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—Further information concerning the tragedy that attended the intercollegiate football game at Sixteenth and Folsom streets yesterday afternoon only adds to the horror of the accident. The confusion which followed the collapse of the ventilator of the central building of the Pacific Glass Works and continued far into the ensuing night has somewhat subsided today, permitting a more careful estimate of the extent of the calamity, but the resurvey of the situation brings no consolation.

The list of injured has grown until it is now believed that it numbers a hundred.

Its exact extent cannot be accurately ascertained because many of those who were able to walk after their fearful plunge went away and have not since been heard from.

There has been some talk of a terrible wrong, of guilty neglect or reprehensible itching for gain that brought about the death and calamity of yesterday.

One story was that some watchman admitted boys to the premises, for a fee of fifty cents each; that had he refused to admit them they would never have been able to get on the roof and so could not have been killed. Another was that the building had not been properly constructed and that an investigation would have to be held to fix the blame for the loss of life and injury to limb. But there seems to be no one to blame. The headlines this morning.

OSCAR WILDE DIES IN PARIS.

Brilliant Author Passes Away in the Latin Quarter of Meningitis.

DUBLIN, Nov. 30.—A dispatch to the Evening Mail from Paris says Oscar Wilde is dead.

The dispatch adds that he expired in an obscure house in the Latin quarter from meningitis and was received into the Catholic Church on his death bed.

[Oscar Wilde was one of the most brilliant writers of modern times. Some of his poems, notably "Ave Imperatrix," are classics, and his novel, "The Picture of Dorian Gray," was widely read. He posed as the apostle of estheticism, and made a lecture tour of the United States some years ago.

Despite his affectations he was a man of literary genius, and as a playwright he had no equal in recent years. A few years ago he became involved in a scandal and served a term in Reading Jail. While incarcerated there he wrote "The Ballad of Reading Jail," a poem that in pathos, terror and painful realism ranks with "The Ancient Mariner."

recklessness of the young stimulated by eagerness to witness the contest from which lack of means excluded them was responsible for the accident.

Mr. Davis, superintendent of the glass works, denies that any watchman accepted fees from boys. He was present in person and asserts that everything was done that could be done to keep out the crowd. City officials aver that the building was properly constructed for the purposes to which it is applied.

THE DEAD.

The following is a revised list of the dead:

- JOHN BROUGH, aged 19.
- ROBERT HARRISON, aged 15, son of an attorney of Kansas City.
- LAWRENCE MIEL, schoolboy.
- TALLEYRAND BARNWELL, 15.
- EDGAR FLAHERTY, 15.
- LEON GIRARD, 17.
- CHARLES MONAGHAN, 32.
- HECTOR MUNCH, 15.
- ROBERT MILLER, 13.
- J. A. MULHONEY, miner, of Spokane, Wash., age 33.
- VIRGIL NEWBY, 13.
- WILLIAM ROTHENSTEIN, 15.
- THOMAS J. RIPPON, 24.
- MERKE VAN DYK (known as Mark Van Dura), miner, recently from Nome, age 40.
- WILLIAM VALENCIA, 18.
- H. DOCKFELDT, 12.

The name of L. C. Putney is given by a morning paper in the list of dead, but the morgue has no record of the death.

Robert Harrison, one of the dead, was the son of Thomas A. Harrison, a prominent attorney of Topeka, Kan. He ran away from home with a boy companion named Harry Neal, son of a feed dealer of the same place. They were to have been sent home tomorrow.

SPEAKS FOR THE BOERS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 30.—During the debate on the budget in the Second Chamber today Herr Kerdyk, Radical, reiterated his opinion that The Netherlands ought to have declined the honor of convening the peace conference unless the Transvaal was admitted. He highly approved of the offer of the Dutch government to intervene between the Transvaal and Great Britain before the war, especially commended the offer to place the Dutch cruiser Gelderland at Mr. Kruger's disposal to convey him from South Africa to Europe. This act, he said, had been applauded by the whole world. The remarks of Herr Kerdyk were greeted with loud cheers.

M'Kinley Will Urge the Measure on Congress.

Owners of Panama Ditch Submit Proposals to Commission.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—President Hulin of the Panama Canal Company called by appointment upon Secretary Hay today and had a long talk with him touching the prospects of the Panama canal as affected by the probable legislation at the approaching Congress. The Panama Company has yet made no official tender of property to the State Department. It has, however, given the Isthmian Canal Commission, of which Admiral Walker is president, a full statement of the affairs of the company and conditions upon which it might be willing to pass control of its property to this Government in event that the Panama route should be chosen. The canal commission will include Mr. Hulin's note, so that Congress will have material before it for choosing between the Panama routes.

The canal commission is making a strenuous effort to finish its preliminary report, which according to Congress was to be delivered to the President today. It is now said that the document will be sent to Congress as an accompaniment of the President's message, and that meanwhile it will probably not be made public.

It is evidently the intention of the Administration to press canal legislation upon Congress earnestly and speedily from the very beginning of the session. It is said that before final action can be had in the Senate upon the pending House bill providing for the construction of the Nicaragua canal the executive branch of the Government will have succeeded in removing certain obstacles which now lie in the course of the pending Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and if this latter convention should be ratified the Administration influence will be cast in favor of the pending bill.

There have been several conferences of late between Secretary Hay on one side and Senors Correa and Calvo, the Ministers of Nicaragua and Costa Rica respectively, and it is believed that by way of anticipating action upon the Hay-Pauncefote treaty the bases have already been laid for the treaties with the two isthmian republics which would be necessary to give effect to the canal bill and to secure for the United States the exclusive right for the canal's construction.
